

Discovering Birmingham guide to the city

The fifth edition of this highly visual tourist guide and memento of the city first produced in 1995. Discovering Birmingham looks at the origins of Birmingham including the industrial revolution and the role of the canals and Victorian growth. The Jewellery Quarter, public art and modern commerce & industry all feature, along with the fine city squares. Future directions Birmingham is taking are considered. All builds into a powerful publication which gives a great feel for the city we can experience today. To be published just a few weeks before we experience our largest ever number of visitors to the city at the Commonwealth Games this publication ticks all the boxes as a small but powerful gift for visitors.

Discovering Birmingham includes a list of things to do with entries linked to a grid on a fold out location map. The book is written and photographed by Jonathan Berg, author of Positively Birmingham, the best-selling coffee-table book of the modern city.

Discovering Birmingham is available in local retail outlets including bookshops, the Library of Birmingham and other locations. It can be purchased in bulk for corporate use, such as new employee starter packs, school class sets, delegate bags for conferences and indeed anyone hosting visitors to Birmingham.

If you are entertaining visitors to Birmingham in 2022 this publication is especially for you!

Publication Details – 5th edition

- Publication date: 1 July 2022
- ISBN: 9781739645700
- 130 colour photos of today's city
- Photos & text: Jonathan Berg
- Size 240mm x 170mm, fold-in 8 page gloss-laminated cover and 48 inside pages.
- Retail price: £5.00
- Trade prices - please enquire: info@positivelybirmingham.co.uk

Our print partner for this publication is:
KEP Print Group of Tamworth

Birmingham Picture Library, 14 St Bernard's Road, Olton, Solihull B92 7BB.

Email: info@positivelybirmingham.co.uk Website: www.positivelybirmingham.co.uk